Our Commitment to You

Meeting House Capital, LLC (“Meeting House Capital” or the “Advisor”) is committed to safeguarding the use of personal information of our Clients (also referred to as “you” and “your”) that we obtain as your Investment Advisor, as described here in our Privacy Policy (“Policy”).

Our relationship with you is our most important asset. We understand that you have entrusted us with your private information, and we do everything that we can to maintain that trust. Meeting House Capital (also referred to as “we”, “our” and “us”) protects the security and confidentiality of the personal information we have and implements controls to ensure that such information is used for proper business purposes in connection with the management or servicing of our relationship with you.

Meeting House Capital does not sell your non-public personal information to anyone. Nor do we provide such information to others except for discrete and reasonable business purposes in connection with the servicing and management of our relationship with you, as discussed below.

Details of our approach to privacy and how your personal non-public information is collected and used are set forth in this Policy.

Why you need to know?

Registered Investment Advisors (“RIAs”) must share some of your personal information in the course of servicing your account. Federal and State laws give you the right to limit some of this sharing and require RIAs to disclose how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

How do we protect your information?

To safeguard your personal information from unauthorized access and use we maintain physical, procedural and electronic security measures. These include such safeguards as secure passwords, encrypted file storage and a secure office environment. Our technology vendors provide security and access control over personal information and have policies over the transmission of data. Our associates are trained on their responsibilities to protect Client’s personal information.

We require third parties that assist in providing our services to you to protect the personal information they receive from us.

How do we share your information?

An RIA shares Client personal information to effectively implement its services. In the section below, we list some reasons we may share your personal information.

Basis For Sharing	Do we share?	Can you limit?
Servicing our Clients With the consent of the Client, the Advisor may share non-public personal information with non-affiliated third parties (such as broker-dealers, custodians, other financial institutions and service providers) as necessary to provide the agreed upon services to the Client. Sharing will occur only as consistent with applicable laws and regulations in the State in which the Client resides. Please see additional rules for Massachusetts below. The Advisor may share personal information with the above-referenced parties for account opening, processing transactions, account maintenance; and other Client service activities. The Advisor may share the following types of information with the above-referenced parties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Name, address and phone number[s] • E-mail address[s] • Driver’s license number • Social security or taxpayer identification number • Date of birth • Assets and liabilities • Income and expenses • Investment activity • Investment experience and goals The Client may also request that the Advisor share non-public personal information with other individuals and businesses. Prior to such sharing, the Advisor will require an executed Information Sharing Authorization from the Client for each authorized party. The Client may rescind these authorizations at any time. The Client may limit sharing of the above-referenced information. However, limiting the sharing of this information could also limit the Advisor’s ability to perform the services outlined in the Client’s agreement with the Advisor.	Yes	Yes

Response to Regulatory Inquiries The Advisor may be required by securities regulators to provide non-public personal information in connection with audits and other inquiries.	Yes	No
Marketing Purposes The Advisor does not disclose, and does not intend to disclose, personal information with non-affiliated third parties to offer you services. Certain laws may give us the right to share your personal information with financial institutions where you are a customer and where the Advisor or the client has a formal agreement with the financial institution. We will only share information for purposes of servicing your accounts, not for marketing purposes.	No	N/A

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We will send you a copy of this Policy annually for as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with us.

Periodically we may revise this Policy and will provide you with a revised Policy if the changes materially alter the previous Privacy Policy. We will not, however, revise our Privacy Policy to permit the sharing of non-public personal information other than as described in this notice unless we first notify you and provide you with an opportunity to prevent the information sharing.

Any Questions?

You may ask questions or voice any concerns, as well as obtain a copy of our current Privacy Policy by contacting us at (617) 840-9023 or via email at info@meetinghousecapital.com.
